

2. Programme and important dates for registration 2020

The Faculty of Law encourages its students to register online if possible, since it will save a great deal of time. Online registration opens on 8 January and must be completed by the 31st January 2020. If you need to consult a Faculty advisor, you are welcome to do so, but you are requested to keep in mind the schedule below.

Arrangements for specific groups

Students should attend the activities indicated in the table below for specific groups of students (no other information sessions are organized by the Faculty).

NWU students from other non-law curricula who have received permission to change to BA Law, B Com Law or LLB need to attend the sessions for 1st year students on 20 and 21 January 2020 in building F14. Furthermore, they must report to Mrs. Alpha Marais in building F5 room 116 on the 30th January who will, inter alia, attend to registration.

Students who wish to switch from BA Law or B Com Law to LLB, or from LLB to one of the other curricula should complete a student's request available on e-Fundi (or send an e-mail to LAW-PC). Whether or not they will be allowed to do so, depends on capacity and their academic records.

Students from other universities who register in 2020 for the first time at the NWU for BA Law, B Com Law or LLB, must attend the sessions on 20th and 21st January. Furthermore, they must report to Prof Flip Schutte in building F5 room G27 on the 30th January who will, inter alia, attend to registration and the recognition of modules passed.

Students whose studies have been blocked (due to various reasons, such as termination of studies) will not be able to register online. They need to report to Prof Schutte as indicated in the table below.
