

9. Class exemption - Faculty Rule 1.2.12 (f)-(h)

A student who failed a module and must repeat it, may apply in writing to the Director Undergraduate Programmes to be exempted from class attendance. If he has complied with the attendance requirements during the preceding year, he may be exempted from class subject to the conditions determined by the Dean and the Director Undergraduate Programmes. One such requirement is that the student should write the scheduled tests and do the assignments in order to build a new participation mark. A student may receive exemption for a maximum of one module per semester or one, year module, and a final year student may receive exemption for a maximum of 2 modules.
