

RESEARCH UNIT: Law, Justice and Sustainability

Faculty @ Law Research
Newsletter

PROF ANEL DU PLESSIS

Editorial

Dear colleagues,

We trust that you will find the latest edition of the Faculty's Research Newsletter inspiring! It is wonderful to be able to give recognition to the recent research output of many of our colleagues and students. As you will see, "conference season" has also commenced and several faculty members have showcased and continue to showcase (in South Africa and abroad) the work we do in the Research Unit: Law, Justice and Sustainability.

The first two 2018 Lecture Series seminars were of a high standard and made for interesting discussions – thank you to the project leaders ("Finance, Trade and Investment" and "Justice in Practice" (JiP)) as well as all of the presenters who put the seminars together. We look forward to the two remaining ones for this year.

The number of researchers based at the President Street Office, Potchefstroom is also increasing as more post-doctoral fellows are joining. I should like to invite all of you to visit this "research hub" of our Faculty when you are in Potchefstroom. Our post 65 researchers have loads of research wisdom to share and have good coffee to offer too!

The Faculty website is under construction as far as our research projects and researcher profiles are concerned. I wish to thank Mrs Rieëtte Venter for her assistance and creative support in this regard. You are invited to share any research-related news with Rieëtte to assist the Faculty in marketing its expertise, to celebrate its achievements, and to show how our colleagues together contribute to scholarship and the knowledge economy of our country.

I also wish to take this opportunity, on behalf of all of us, to thank Prof Willemien du Plessis for selflessly serving the Faculty of Law as Research Director for almost two decades. She has done more for law and governance research in our Faculty, in South Africa and abroad, than many people will ever know. This testifies to her modesty, dedication and wisdom. Thank you, Willemien, for being such an outstanding mentor, academic mother and leader.

Happy research hours to all of you until our next Newsletter.

Acting Director: Research

One of the most recent publications in our Faculty has been co-edited by one of our Research Professors, Prof Louis Kotzé.

The volume, "Sustainable Development Goals: Law, Theory and Implementation" is published by Edward Elgar and as the title suggests, deals with an incredibly important topic moving forward on law and development between now and 2030.

Two Faculty members authored and co-authored chapters in the volume.

Congratulations, Louis

Research Lecture Series @ Faculty of Law

PROJECT: FINANCE, TRADE AND INVESTMENT:

DATE: 19 APRIL 2018

THEME: CRAZY, OUTRAGEOUS OR JUST DOWNRIGHT WRONG

SPEAKERS: Prof Wian Erlank: <https://youtu.be/IrkLbVvHiog>;

Prof Leonie Stander and Ms Naeema Gabru

BRIEF FEEDBACK:

This approach was taken so as to do quick case discussions/discussions on recent developments in the field of Mercantile Law. The speakers that presented were Prof Leonie Stander (marine insurance), Ms Naeema Gabru (sugar tax), and Ms Michelle Schoeman (iro slack-fill suits as well as self-regulation with reference to the Advertising Authority of South Africa and Herbex). Prof Wian Erlank's presentation had been pre-recorded. Overall, the nature of the presentations as well as the contents thereof provoked interesting discussions in between the presentations as well as over lunch.

PROJECT: JUSTICE IN PRACTICE

DATE: 24 MAY 2018

THEME: THE SOUTH AFRICAN LAND ISSUE

SPEAKERS: Ms Chiedza Tsvakira (NWU Agricultural Economist) on successful redistribution of land and Prof Elmien du Plessis on expropriation without compensation in a constitutional context

BRIEF FEEDBACK:

The issue of land expropriation without compensation is an emotive and controversial topic in South Africa at the moment in the light of recent developments in Parliament. To bring the facts and the various viewpoints to the Faculty, the problem was approached on the day from an alternative perspective - more practical and with the focus on possible successes. The two speakers kept the audience enthralled for longer than an hour, setting out the practical and legal problems with some possible solutions. The number of questions and the variety of opinions expressed in an open and non-judgemental manner clearly indicated the success of the day.

A close-up photograph of a person in a dark blue suit and white shirt typing on a silver laptop. The person's hands are the central focus. In the foreground, there is a brown ceramic coffee cup on the left and some papers with a pen on the desk. The background is blurred, showing more of the person's suit. A red rectangular box is overlaid in the center of the image, containing white text. There are also some white diagonal lines in the top right and bottom left corners of the image.
